

Pumpkin People in the Park 2016

Official Rules of the Contest:

 The cost to enter into the Pumpkin People in the Park contest is $65 for both members and non-members. This gets you a plot in Kate Gould Park (this will be first come, first served on 10/14) a sign for your business, and the option of having hay and a stand.

Please note: Hay and wooden stands have been provided in the past, and will be again this year, however, please note on your entry form whether you would like hay and/or a stand.

 Completed entry forms and payment must be received by Chatham Merchants Association by Monday, October 3rd, 2016. Businesses will not be permitted to set-up their person until payment has been received.

 Construction of displays are to be done on Friday, October 14th between 10am and 1pm. There will be volunteers in Kate Gould Park during this time, including a carpenter with a table saw to assist with minor alterations. Displays not set-up during this time will be the responsibility of the business and will not receive assistance. Judging begins Monday, 10/17.

 A panel of judges will review all the Pumpkin People displays and rate each display in four categories: Difficulty, Originality, Creativity and Entertaining. The combined score of the judges will determine the winners.

 All displays must contain Pumpkin People. Displays must be in good taste and be constructed to withstand the weather. All displays must remain up through 10/31 and be removed by 11/1/16. It is the responsibility of the business/individual to remove the display.
